A Legacy Continues: Honoring Dr. S. D. James!!!

With reverence and reflection, on the LIFE and LEGACY of our Founder & Chief Editor,
Celestial Intercessor Dr. S.D. James.

His voice, etched into over 200+ Transcripts and Articles of Faith, continues to speak with clarity, conviction, and compassion. His work was not merely editorial—it was spiritual architecture,
building bridges between thought and truth,
between tradition and transformation.

Dr. James believed in the power of the written word to heal, to challenge, and to uplift. His legacy is not confined to pages—it lives in the hearts of those who read them, and in the mission of Open Door Publications itself.

Joshua 1:1–2, which marks a pivotal moment of leadership transition and divine commissioning:

Joshua 1:1–2 (KJV) “Now after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD it came to pass, that the LORD spake unto Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' minister, saying, Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give to them...”

Changing of the Guards:

A Message from Open Door Publications

Today, we pause to honor our Senior Apostle, Dr. Samuel Huggins-James, a scholar, a seeker, and a steward of wisdom, who has vowed to continue the legacy of his spiritual father Dr. S. D. James with humility and vision. He does not replace—he continues. He does not echo—he evolves. With deep respect for the foundation laid before him, he brings new light to our path forward.

Let us walk together into this next chapter, carrying the torch lit by Dr. S.D. James and guided by the thoughtful leadership of Dr. Samuel Huggins-James. The door remains open—and the story continues.
